

DEMobilIZATION OF AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE UNDERWAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Demobilization of the American expeditionary forces, already in progress with the movement homeward of sick and wounded will be hastened by the return at an early date of eight divisions of national guard and national army troops, eight regiments of coast artillery and two brigades of field artillery.

This announcement was made today by General Pershing, chief of staff, on receipt of dispatches from General March.

86th Division to Return

The divisions which General March said have been designated by General Pershing to return as soon as the sick and wounded have been moved to the United States are:

National Guard:

- 31st (Georgia, Alabama and Florida).
- 34th (Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota and Minnesota).
- 38th (Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia).
- 39th (Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana).
- National Army:
- 76th (New England).
- 84th (Kentucky, Indiana and Southern Illinois).
- 86th (Northern Illinois, including Chicago).
- 87th (Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Southern Alabama).

The Coast Artillery regiments to be returned as soon as possible were announced as the 46th, 47th, 28th, 49th, 50th, 73rd, 74th and 75th.

The two field artillery brigades to be brought home are the 65th and the 163rd. Eighty-two aero squadrons, seventeen construction companies and several special units from England will be brought home as soon as transportation facilities are available, General March said.

General March said no report on the organization of the army of occupation had been received but that the divisions designated by General Pershing for return were among those he could spare immediately.

The order in which they will return has not been established but the chief of staff pointed out that it would take considerable time to bring that number of men home. He also gave assurances that the war department had no intention of allowing the veterans of the battlefields of France and Belgium "to sneak into the country" unnoticed, but that timely announcement would be made so that adequate reception could be planned.

Pershing Will Retain Army of 1,200,000

Secretary Baker supplemented General March's outline of demobilization plans later by stating that General Pershing was reducing his army to a strength of thirty divisions and would further reduce it as conditions justify. At an average strength of 40,000 men to a division which would cover all necessary auxiliary forces this would mean that General Pershing would retain 1,200,000 in France from which the actual army of occupation and its reserves would be organized to provide against any possible emergency.

General March showed that virtually all of the supplemental army corps and army troops are to be withdrawn. He said he already had authorized General Pershing to send back railway artillery, army artillery, gas troops and tank corps units in addition to the divisional organizations. Some of the divisions designated by General Pershing are replacement units which have been skeletonized by withdrawal of drafts to recruit divisions in the line.

The aero squadrons to return are numbers 92, 140, 156, 167, 177, 187-8, 210-11, 216, 219-20, 225-6, 228, 234, 254, 256, 259-60-61-62-63, 265, 267-68, 282, 306 to 310 inclusive, 314 to 321 inclusive, 325, 239 to 338 inclusive, 340, 349, 356, 361, 371, 377-78, 470 to 473 inclusive, 475 to 479 inclusive, 812, 823-24, 831 to 834 inclusive, 836, 837, 838, 839, 852, 868, 906 and 1107.

The construction companies are numbers 3 to 19 inclusive, with the exception of Company No. 11, and three other special units.

FRENCH AGAIN IN POSSESSION OF METZ

Will Take Some Time for the Territory to Accustom Itself to the Changes Which are Being Made.

With the French Army at Metz, Nov. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—It is going to take some time for the "territory of Metz" to accustom itself to the changes which are being made in its administration in the opinion of the inhabitants of this region. By this name part of the reconquered Lorraine will be known until it has been finally and fully re-installed in the French republic. The greater problem will be Metz itself, the smaller towns and rural districts, excepting the mining districts, being as thoroughly French as ever. Metz, the metropolis of the province after having served forty eight years as a German garrison has been Germanized to an extent that can be appreciated only by personal contact. The very considerable number of immigrants from the imperial army brought with it had established the strong German colony, almost equalling the French civil population in numbers.

These Germans held all the public offices and filled all the public posts on railroads and in the postal service. They finally succeeded in gaining an equal representation with the French in the municipal council.

The native population unfailing in its loyalty to France was overwhelmed and terrorized and could only nurse its affection for France in secret. Now that the liberation the people had hoped has come, it has taken them by surprise.

Those residents of Metz who are most devoted to France still find occasionally that in spite of themselves they are speaking low when talking of France and their newly gained liberty, from instinctive fear of a heavy German hand on the shoulder and an invitation to follow to the police station.

A German population, the other hand, appears to lack full comprehension of what has happened. The German residents take the arrival of the French troops as an unwarranted invasion. The presiding officer of the German civil administration, Baron von Gemmingen showed surprise when Monsieur Mierman, the prefect of Nancy appointed commissary by the French government for Lorraine arrived to take possession of his post. Monsieur Mierman found a portrait of the German emperor still hanging in the private office of the prefecture. Naturally it was taken down and relegated to a corner. This action Baron von Gemmingen characterized as "violent pressure."

It took two days to convince the old president of the German administration that the newly arrived commissary was in fact his successor and that he must give way.

Order is being maintained in Metz during the period of transition by natives of Alsace-Lorraine with tri-color badges on their arms. They have all the authority of municipal police. There have been a few incidents but quiet prevails and the people of Metz are beginning to see clearly their emotions that have shaken their souls.

DISCUSS THE FUTURE STATUS OF RAILROADS

Result of Resignation of Director-General McAdoo

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—William G. McAdoo's resignation as head of the treasury and railroad administration precipitated discussion of the future status of railroads an issue which had been somewhat dormant up to the present. Indications were that a result of his retirement would be to throw into congress and public discussion much sooner than otherwise the issue of whether government operation is to continue indefinitely, whether this will be extended to government ownership of the roads which will be restored to private management with some sort of federal revision to permit their continued pooling and unified operation.

Speculation as to Mr. McAdoo's successors took equal rank with the discussion of the future of the policy toward the railroads.

For the position as secretary of the treasury Representative Carter Glass of Virginia, chairman of the house banking and currency committee is known to be under serious consideration by several of President Wilson's closest advisers. Friends of Mr. Glass say he has a reputation for being a close student and constructive thinker on financial subjects and for executive ability in a number of private enterprises.

Successor is Unknown.

For director-general of railroads there appears to be much more doubt of the president's selection. Such a man as Major General George W. Goethals is wanted. It was stated today—a man with executive ability not closely connected with railroad management, who could view problems from the public standpoint and at the same time could direct the staff and organization built up by Mr. McAdoo.

On the new general of railroads, will devolve the task of guiding the roads thru the readjustment period. This task will apply to many phases of employment conditions, rate practices, traffic reform, terminal concentrations, distribution of newly purchased cars and locomotives, policies of government financing of betterments, extensions and equipment purchases, continuation of re-routing and short hauling, standardization of operating methods and measures to increase the traffic capacity of the rail system to handle the big volume of freight expected by students of individual development during the next few years.

Upon the policies of the new rail director will depend largely whether the government shall continue combining the railroads into a homogenous unit or begin the "breaking up" process in preparation for resumption of private control. From the president's selection observers believe may be determined to a large degree the attitude of the administration on the railroad's future.

This is on reason why the picking of a new director-general is regarded as fraught with unusual significance.

JAMES RETURNS TO STATE UNIVERSITY

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Dr. Edmund James, president of the Illinois University will resume active direction of that institution Monday after an absence of several months during which he was engaged in special war work for the government. This announcement was made at a meeting of the university trustees today.

GERMANS FAST RETURNING HOME

Amsterdam, Nov. 23.—The Tagblatt of Berlin, publishes advice from Frankfurt to the effect that one hundred thousand German soldiers are passing thru Frankfurt daily. I., Nov. 23.—After being ten days without food and five days without water, fourteen members of the crew of the American Steamer Dumaru, wrecked by lightning off Guam, Oct. 16, have arrived at Samar, P. This is the third boat from the Dumaru to be accounted for.

William H. Taft May Enter Into Baseball Field

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Former President William Howard Taft has been offered the position of sole member of the National Commission of the National and American Leagues, according to announcement here tonight by H. N. Hempstead, president of the New York Nationals and Harry Frazee, president of the Boston Americans. Mr. Taft is said to be considering the offer.

Acceptance by Mr. Taft would mean the passing of the present National Commission which is composed of the two league presidents and a third member and, it is said would shear Ban Johnson, president of the American League of the powers which have earned for him the title of "Baseball Dictator." The offices of the new "one man commission" would be in New York.

The offer to Mr. Taft is said to have been made without the knowledge of western presidents of the two leagues. All of the eastern club presidents are said to have approved the offer and this would give the originators of the idea sufficient votes to carry the proposal.

The conference between Messrs. Taft, Hempstead and Frazee was held in this city today and Mr. Taft took the offer under consideration without comment. His reply is not expected for several days.

Fierce Fighting On The Volga Archangel R.R.

ARCHANGEL, Nov. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—The American and entente troops have encountered strong opposition both on the Volga-Archangel railway and on the Dvina river. Owing to the swampy condition of the terrain it has been necessary to confine operations to the waterway and the railway. As the upper part of the river is deeper than its mouth the Bolsheviks have been able to land troops and equipment in the upper reaches of the river.

A plan is under discussion in military circles for the creation of a voluntary army for Russian relief should the allies agree upon the policy of feeding Russia. Daylight in Archangel now is of only four hours duration and this, with the fog, facilitates the guerrilla warfare of the Bolsheviks operating in the shelter of the forests. It is believed the evacuation of the Archangel district by the allies would result in the murder of the entire population friendly to the entente by the Bolsheviks, just as the elements antagonistic to the Bolsheviks were slaughtered in the Volga towns evacuated by the Czechs.

WILL WRITE HISTORY OF AMERICAN ARMY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The history of the operations of the American army in France will be written with a detail never possible in any previous war. Provision for obtaining the most intimate information of the action of each unit of the army was made by the department in order to "war diaries" to be kept by designated officers of each unit. The information thus obtained, General March, chief of staff said today would furnish a day-to-day and hour-to-hour history of the war so far as the American expeditionary forces are concerned. "The historical public narrative," General March said, "will be so complete that it will be impossible for anybody to add to it. It will be a day-to-day and hour-to-hour record of all actions until demobilization."

PROCLAMATION

Issued By Governor Lowden Calling Attention to Centennial Day, Dec. 2nd

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 23.—A proclamation calling attention to December 2 as the date marking "a full hundred years since Illinois was formally admitted into the union of States" was issued by Governor Frank O. Lowden today.

Referring to the worthy part played by sons of Illinois in the great war just ending, the governor says:

"The gates of the new century swing ajar. The mighty problems of peace are upon us. With the reorganization of our state government, with a new constitutional convention before us, with a new system of highways to be built, Illinois is preparing to meet these problems. So on December 2, grateful for our first great century, let us now plan how we shall make our second century in achievement, match the first."

PERSHING'S MEN ARE NEAR GERMAN BORDER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—General Pershing's forces in Luxembourg and all along the river Moselle from the points of junction with the French on their right and left, looked over into Germany today. The Germans are somewhat slower in some places in evacuating their territory than had been expected but not enough to give rise to the belief that they do not intend to observe the terms of the armistice.

Along the Moselle lagging German soldiers washed their clothing today on their side of the river. The Americans on the opposite bank did likewise. There was little fraternizing. The weather is clear and cold. The Americans have bought guide books of Luxembourg and are enjoying the sightseeing in the Moselle valley. By official decree the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg early today changed from German to French time, the clocks being set back fifty five minutes.

We should be very glad to have you carry this to the people in Michigan. They have done well."

WILSON EXPECTED TO SAIL WITHIN NEXT TWO WEEKS

Personnel of American Commission Not Complete

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—With President Wilson expected to sail for France within less than two weeks, so far as can be gathered the personnel of the American commission which is to represent this country at the peace conference, is not complete, even as to its principals. This is believed to be the explanation of the delay in making public announcement of the names of the commissioners which the recent White House statement said would be made "presently."

Meanwhile attention is being given to the selection of the secretaries and attaches of the American mission and to the collection of the large quantity of historical and legal data that will be required. The nearest parallel to the approaching conference probably is to be found in the famous conference of Vienna of 1814 which gathered to re-arrange the map of Europe following Napoleon's downfall. Accordingly earnest study is being given to the preliminaries leading up to that conference and to its detailed proceedings as far as these have been preserved.

The two Hague conferences of 1897 and 1907 also developed methods of procedure and wealth of subjects regarding the relationships of the community of states that would be of assistance in arranging the program of proceedings at Versailles. For their special guidance the American commissioners will have at hand a vast amount of information regarding the smaller nationalities of Europe; the arbitrary divisions of racial ties and natural affiliations for purely political reasons and the latest conceptions of the present desires of the oppressed races all representing the results of close study by some of America's most eminent university men, directed by Colonel House.

The American commissioners in addition will have the benefit of exceedingly detailed and definite instructions on every conceivable point. These instructions are believed to be in preparation now by state department officials.

CHARGES OF BRIBE DENIED BY HERSHAW

Says He Had Nothing to Do With Alleged Frame-Up In San Francisco Preparedness Day Mooney Bomb Case.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 23.—Frederick W. Henshaw, former justice of the California supreme court issued a signed statement to The Associated Press today denying charges he received a bribe of $410,000 in the famous case of the James G. Fair estate, and denying any connection with an alleged "frame-up" in the San Francisco preparedness day Mooney bomb case and set forth in report to William B. Wilson, secretary of labor, published here over the signature of John B. Denmore, director-general of employment of the labor department.

"The charges against me in the report of Denmore as special investigator of the department of labor are two-fold.

"First, that I joined with Fickert in a Mooney 'frame-up'.

"Second, that I was capable of doing this infamous thing, because I had corruptly taken a bribe of $410,000 in the case mentioned."

Judge Henshaw's statement before witnesses follows:

"To The Associated Press.

"The Fair case was decided some twenty years ago. Years after its decision I was re-elected to the supreme court bench and served eleven of the twelve years' term, resigning under no compulsion or agreement with Mr. Older or anybody else. My resignation was dictated purely upon personal grounds.

"I was not and am not interested in the Mooney case, saving as any citizen is interested in seeing exact justice in punishment of a most wanton, vicious and unprovoked crime. Mr. Fickert, from time to time consulted me always at his own instance, never at my own to tell me his difficulties in following up information which would lead to complete disposures of Mooney's guilt."

Railroad Station Agents Given Wage Increase

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Railroad station agents today were granted by Director General McAdoo a general wage increase of 25 per month above the rate prevailing last January 1, with a minimum of $95 per month. Eight hours is to be considered a day's work with a pro rata pay for two hours overtime and time and a half for service above ten hours.

The order affects about 2,500 station agents who are not telegraphers and who consequently were not covered by a recent wage increase for telegraphers.

The wage advance does not apply to men paid $30 or less a month for special services requiring only a portion of their time. Exceptions also are made for a few agents who received $50 or less a month who would receive an advance of $25 is granted, without application of the $95 minimum.

The wage increase order was the first official document signed by Mr. McAdoo today following the announcement of his resignation on the ground of inadequate pay for cabinet officers.

RECOGNITION OF RUSSIA AT PEACE MEETING URGED

Complete Destruction of Bolshevism Asked

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Recognition of Russia at the world peace conference at Versailles was urged by Prince George Lvoff, first prime minister of Russia after the overthrow of the czar in a statement today to the American people. Prince Lvoff expressed his conviction that any program of reconstruction which does not provide for the complete destruction of Bolshevism in Russia will leave in the world the germ of another war.

"The termination of the war has raised the question of the peace conference," said Prince Lvoff. "If there is a sense of duty and justice dictates to the allies the need of a defense of Russia."

"To designate the persons and consider the form of their part at the conference is a matter of friendly interest to the allies."

Statement by Prince Lvoff. Of the present Bolshevik rulers of Russia, Prince Lvoff said: "At the moment of greatest weariness of the war they promised peace bread and liberty to the people and many followed. "Instead of peace they have never ceasing war; instead of bread, hunger without precedent in Russia; instead of liberty, bloody tyranny such as we never knew in the worst years of the reign of the czars.

"The Bolsheviks are indulging in a perpetual revolution. Their aim is universal social revolution. They are interested in Russia chiefly as a leath which they may keep up by all means the world's conflagration. From the outside it would seem that the Bolshevik display strong power, but this impression is not correct. Almost all the branches of their administration are in a state of chaos and they are unable to enforce, even by the most cruel and sanguinary measures, the submission of the border lands and the execution of their decrees.

"In the Bolshevik state, in connection with complete anarchy reign hunger and the need of all essentials of life. The allies have decided to feed the vanquished foes. Can they let Russia die of starvation? The allies require order of Germany. Can they tolerate the nest of anarchy in Russia, the domination of the Bolsheviks which are leading to kindle class hatred and the struggle with the arms of the proletariat against other groups of the population?

"I deem the intervention of the allies is dictated not only by pure compassion for the victims of Russian Bolshevism but by political foresight as well."

Prince Lvoff praised highly the accomplishment of the Czechoslovak forces and said that around them had centered such ideas of order as were successful in parts of Russia. He predicted that the separating communities now organizing under the impulse of the Czechoslovak adventure it aided by the allies, now that the need is most pressing would fuse again into a strong central state.

"A sentence on Bolshevism and all its crimes has been passed by all the civilized nations," he declared, "but the source and character of its power remain still not clearly understood by many people abroad."

WILL HOLD REGULAR TOURNAMENTS

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Directors of the Western Golf association today decided to hold the regular golf championship next summer as the Germans have been defeated and hostilities apparently ended.

TOTAL AMERICAN CASUALTIES FOR WAR 236,000

Number Killed, Died and Missing Only 54,329

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Casualties sustained by the American Expeditionary Forces up to the signing of the armistice are being tabulated by General March as follows:

Total American casualties to Nov. 11, when hostilities ceased were 236,117. This includes, General March said, killed and died of wounds, died of disease, unclassified deaths, wounded, prisoners and missing.

Killed and died of wounds 36,154.
Died of disease 14,811.
Deaths unclassified 2,294.
Wounded 179,625.
Prisoners 2,165.
Missing 1,160.
Total 236,117.

While the total losses suffered by the American army in France at first glance appeared to be almost double the total estimated by officers here as probably analysis of the table it was pointed out, shows that among the 197,000 wounded are included the names of thousands of men whose injuries were so trivial that they never were admitted to hospitals and the record of their injury was kept only in company and regimental dressing stations. The final total of killed, died of wounds or disease, or on the unclassified death list, the seriously wounded and the prisoners and missing officers believe will work out not in excess of 125,000.

The official figures show nearly double the number of deaths from disease that have been made public to date. No explanation has been forwarded by General Pershing, but it is assumed that the unexpected increase is due to the wide distribution of American and allied hospitals to which the men were sent, making it a slow progress to assemble the data.

The number of Americans taken prisoner by the Germans—little more than two thousand—is strikingly low in view of General March's announcement that a total "in round numbers" of 44,000 Germans had been captured by the Americans. The fact that the American armies have been moving forward continuously since it entered the battle doubtless accounts for the great difference. The 1,160 men reported as missing probably include others who will be found to have been captured, some whose bodies will never be recovered and others who may have become lost in the ranks of the French or British forces. The classification also covers the unidentified dead elways to be expected when great bodies of troops are engaged.

Now that Mr. McAdoo, the president's man of all work, has resigned, how will the country manage to exist, especially if the president leaves?

A good way to show your thankfulness at this time, a little in advance of the date, is to take a few dollars to the secretary of the social service league that she may use it in furnishing a basket of good things for some poor deserving family. You will feel better if you know that a few dollars out of your pocket helped to make a happier day for someone not as well fixed as yourself.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Thursday of this week will be Thanksgiving day, a day observed for generations in this country more as a day of feasting than as a day of fasting and prayer, for which the day was set apart in the old days in New England. It is a day that has always meant much to the American people, a day more generally observed as a holiday than any other, excepting Christmas and the 4th of July. But this year its observance will be even more universal and more hearty and heartfelt than usual, for we have so many more reasons to be thankful for, so many more reasons to return thanks to the ruler of all, who has guided the nation and the world through time of dire stress and trial to a glorious victory for peace and for mankind. "Peace on earth and good will to all men" has a greater significance today than at any time in fifty years.

For the past few years the hearts of hundreds of mothers in Jacksonville and Morgan county have been torn by anguish and anxiety regarding the sons who had gone from home, smiling and courageous, to fight for what we all believed to be the right, some of them never to return. In the nation millions have suffered.

This Thanksgiving day, when victory is an accomplished fact, how many hearts have been glad by the thought that their sons have been relieved from the dangers of death by shell, or bullet, or deadly gas, that they may be home with them again, perhaps in a very short time, that perhaps even on this day some of them may be with their own. That the brave men who left their families, their children, their loved ones, may soon gather at their firesides in peaceful reunion, safe and sound, with the memory of their achievements, their suffering and hardships and their victory to leave as a proud heritage to their children in the years of peace and plenty that we hope will be theirs.

Is not all of this reason enough to make this Thanksgiving day one of the most genuine and sincere days of its kind in our history?

But there are others, many others, who should not be forgotten in the blessings that peace brings, those whose sons or brothers have paid the price, whether on the field of battle or in the cantonments. They were men who in the pride of youth answered their country's call, but who may not return, and around them shines a splendor of purest light, they gave their all. Feast and be merry over the return of your loved ones, but with a prayer of hope for the stricken ones and their friends. In our city and county alone there have been more than two score of manly young men who have gone to their death that the world might be made more glorious, and whose parents and relatives are among the thousands in the nation who mourn, and yet who are proud of the memory of the men of whom it can be said "well done," nobly you have done your part.

To the memory of these men all honor.

But the end of the belated casualty list is not yet, so in this day of gladness pray to the all merciful, let it be truly be a day of prayer.

The declaration of peace is but a matter of a few days now, so feast and be merry and at the same time be thankful to the God who orders all things well and "from whom all blessings flow."

WHEN UNITY IS LACKING.

There are many things about this city of Jacksonville that we live in that may puzzle people outside the limits of the classic place. We are so terribly earnest, so terribly radical in all that we do. In every line of endeavor we have been split into factions until it has become well nigh impossible for any one faction to succeed. We go to the extreme every time and on every question it is possible to debate and even on some that are hardly debatable. We made a flying jump into the unknown when the commission form of government was established.

We made another jump when we ditched the commission form and reverted to the old aldermanic form before the new idea had a fair test. It will have been in effect for nearly eight years, the most unfavorable in our history financially, and simply because the men in power were unable to squeeze out enough money to accomplish many things, the plan was damaged. With the present financial condition of the city it will be a bold step of men who will dare to seek the office of mayor and alderman this coming year.

No the citizens of Jacksonville do not believe in any half way measures. When we have the flu, we go to the limit, and one faction is ready to blame the other every time a man sneezes, and if he should cough they rush him to the hospital and cry "help." They are not content that the Red Cross people have done a world of good in the establishment of temporary hospitals and securing volunteer nurses, but it must be sent broadcast that Jacksonville has disease to a greater extent than any of our neighboring cities, that we had a celebration on the declaration of the armistice and that the people took it so hard that they might never recover their equilibrium.

In our war work we go the limit with better effect, for Jacksonville has not fallen down in a single effort where the welfare of our government or our boys in the service has been involved. There is one thing we can not stand, that is, that the people on the one hand, and the city government, on the other, have been united so far in the war work, there has been little grumbling regarding regulations, even on matters that we did not understand. We have been as near united on these questions as it was possible to be. For once all differences were dropped and citizens of this city worked together.

But can you say as much on any other question of public policy for the public good? Jacksonville seems to have lost sight of the welfare and prosperity of the city and to take a pride in dividing on trivial matters. To hear many talk on the streets one would think that there are very few men in the city that could or should be trusted with the conduct of their affairs. Has there been a city official for many years that has not been vilified? Of the present retiring members of the city government, too, we may question their policies. Do you hear any one saying they "did what they could"? One fears only criticism and sometimes of the most severe and most unjustified character.

Why is it? Why do we have to set before the world that there is not one subject or man that we can unite on or trust. It means only disaster to our town that we should be so radical and extreme in our opinions of men whom we elect to office. Jacksonville has everything within her borders to make her prosperous, if we could only work together for even a short time and not go to extremes in so many matters. Get together, even if we do have to give up some of our pet aims and ideas. Get together for the good of the community and not be so ready with criticism and denunciation until a fair trial has been given both men and measures. Get together in the selection of the best men who can be induced to dare the risk of reputation and character in the service of the people. Get together for your own good and that of your neighbors.

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

THE ILL WIND

The influenza went its way, and slew its legions every day, as dire a thing as war, and while they winced beneath the rods, men clamored to their divers gods. "What did you send it for?"

What is the use of a disease that makes men cough and whoop and sneeze until they break their necks? What profits it to spring an ill that fills the pesthouse on the hill with ghastly wrecks? Sometimes we cannot see the plan behind the rod that chastens man, and of an odd kind; why shouldn't life be endless bliss; why should we suffer that and this, and why be sore and sick? The influenza came along just when our statesmen, going strong were primed for the campaign; they had their speeches learned by heart, and they'd turn out with graceful art, their doctrines safe and sane. Windjammers here, windjammers there, were suffering to paw the air, and make the welkin reel; the voters, shuddering with dread, looked on the carnival ahead, or argument, and spied. Then the flu, and the crowds were banned, all public meetings in the land had the verboten sign; the candidates could only take the speeches they were primed to make, and put them down in brine. Yet people cry, "What is the use of pestilence that cooks our goose, and puts us on the blink?" They have not learned to analyze, they have not learned to use their eyes, they have not learned to think.

LOCAL FIRM ADDS IMPORTANT LINES

Farm Supply Co. Takes on I. H. C. Machinery and Republic Trucks — Establishes Repair Period—Shows Gratifying Business Increase.

Jacksonville has witnessed the establishment and the rapid and substantial growth of many commercial enterprises, perhaps no city of its size in the state more so. Yet it is a condition not greatly to be marveled at when the territory tributary to this city is considered. Its citizens admire puck, energy and determination and are quick to respond to it.

Distinctly in this class of business enterprises is the Jacksonville Farm Supply Co., of which T. Mackness, one of the most optimistic and virile of the city's business men, is the president. Mr. Mackness states that his firm is anticipating and laying plans for a greatly increased business the coming year since the present year showed an increase of 25%. Among other of the Farm Supply company's preparations is the recent entering into an agreement with the International Harvester company to handle here their line of harvesting machinery (McCormick and Deering) and to carry a complete stock of repairs for everything built by that company, and be prepared to give service. The new stock handled will include binders, mowers, rakes, tedders, twine, etc., and also a full line of cream separators.

A particularly interesting feature of the Farm Supply company's determination to leave no stone unturned to be of service to their patrons, is their joining in a movement known as the "National Two-Weeks Repair Period," this period beginning with the first of each year. It is expected that every farmer will take stock of his needs so that repairs wanted can be made and no delay incurred in commencing spring work.

The Farm Supply company also has entered into a contract to handle the Republic truck in this territory, a thoroughly well known machine of from three-fourths to five-ton capacity, and also will continue to handle the standard Avery tractor in connection with its large and complete farm supply stock.

The Jacksonville Farm Supply Co. came into existence about six years ago, taking as its motto, "Service, Satisfaction, Success," to which it has adhered strictly, its gratifying growth and community standing today being but the natural outcome. The company's personnel is Chas. T. Mackness, president; M. R. Hager, Sec'y-Mgr., and Theo. C. Hager, Treas., loyally aided by an efficient sales and office corps.

SENSIBLE SUGGESTIONS

A doctor from a neighboring town said yesterday to a Journal reporter that he had had a hundred cases of "flu" and had lost but one and that was a woman who he dismissed but with a stern injunction to stay in bed several days but she felt so well she got up and went to work losing her life as the penalty. The doctor said there was lots of needless alarm regarding the flu. Many supposed cases were bad colds and if the genuine were promptly taken in hand and treated with the proper medicine, very few fatalities. The one thing of prime importance is to guard the cases, keep in all members of the family and strictly isolate the sick and the trouble would soon disappear. There is no need to be afraid in town or stay away from it if people will use right judgment.

Yesterday he was in the city for the first time on Saturday for two years and for 38 months he has not missed a trip with his milk wagon. TELLS OF OVER THERE TELLS ABOUT OVER THERE

Jacksonville Returns from Y. M. C. A. Service on Battle Front — Has Wound in Hand from Piece of Shrapnel—Greatly Interested in Work.

Bronzed and bearded, and wounded in his left hand, Henry Pinkerton arrived in Jacksonville yesterday the first one from this county to return from the front and active service in the Y. M. C. A. The gentleman has not come home to stay but is enroute to a St. Louis hospital for further treatment of his wound. When seen by a Journal reporter, he was ready to talk of everything but his own experiences and that had to be drawn from him against his will for he says his little affair is nothing; think of the men with a leg, a hip, an arm of both arms torn off and then there will be something worth relating. He said substantially:

Entered Service Year Ago. "I left for Camp Logan the 20th of November, 1917 and last May we sailed for the scene of conflict. We were twelve days crossing the ocean as the course had to be zig zag without lights or anything to attract an enemy. We first arrived in London and then we knew there was a war in the land. The place was much depressed, dark as a dungeon at night, provisions high and hard to get; everyone, nearly mourning a relative lost in the war. It was rather depressing. The people were all patriotic and determined to win the war but they felt too that the contest had been hard and long and they hardly knew when the end would be and most joyously did they welcome the arrival of American troops.

After a stay of four days in the great metropolis we went to LaHavre, France, where he was examined briefly and then sent to our posts of duty. We were much needed and hastened right along to the front. I was placed in charge of a canteen which is a little affair not much more than six feet square and calculated to follow wherever the men are fighting. It is supplied with cigars, tobacco, cigarettes, chocolate, candy, cookies and various articles. These were all sold to the boys at cost and the trouble was to persuade them to put up with much less than they wanted. It was truly a delight to serve the weary, brave, noble fighters with hot chocolate and refreshing drinks and goodies and their gratitude and appreciation were great.

"We were attached to the third division which was at the front most of the time except three weeks in a respite between hills. Our canteens were located in all sorts of places; sometimes in a dugout, in a cellar, a house without a roof, in bushes, and in fact anywhere that a lodging and comparative safety could be secured.

"Once we were very pleasantly located in a place near Chateau Thierry on a place between hills that had not been destroyed by German fire. The owner was a rich man and especially fond of pets and he had all sorts of places prepared for them cemented with stone, supplied with running water and the like and the many occupants in a respite away and the place turned over to us. We had the hen house and it was fine for the purpose.

At Chateau Thierry "We were at Chateau Thierry six or eight weeks and there saw much fighting and strenuous service. We were at the front and as the plachers drew tighter and tighter about St. Mielle, we saw many thousands of Boche prisoners. They seemed well fed but were of all ages and conditions. At one time I saw two American army police escorting at least a thousand Boche prisoners to the cage and the fellows didn't seem a bit downcast but rather pleased. I think they were rather willing to be taken prisoners myself.

"The grand morale of our men was ever a source of wonder to the enemy. They were simply unable to understand how men so recently from the walks of civilian life could fight with such abandon and energy and fearlessly and it doubtless had much to do with the surrender of the German army. I think the boys at the front were generally as merry and happy a lot as I ever saw. They faced death or wounds unflinchingly. I have seen poor fellows with a leg shattered, a hip torn away, a hole through the body, an arm and even both arms damaged or shot away and yet there was very little murmuring or grumbling. Of course they all thought of home and as they kept on pushing the Huns back they felt the end couldn't be very far away and with a "Good-bye," hell or Hoboken by Christmas, and many of them will be accommodated with the last named.

"All manner of praise is due the Red Cross and army Y. M. C. A. and Knights of Columbus as well as the Salvation Army. All did their part in the great conflict.

Wounded Sept. 28.

"It was near Argonne, Sept. 28th that I was wounded. We were lined up in a forest and my little canteen was amid some bushes. We were supplied from the storehouse with three trucks and three canonnets which are miniature autos loaded with the best supplies we could obtain. The men were obliged to line up to get their articles from us. The autos were in charge of a man named Reeves, the I do not know where he lived in this country. He seemed possessed with a charmed life, was a stranger to fear and went everywhere with his car and was the idol of the boys.

It was about dusk as I had forty men lined up and was dealing them such things as we had when a piece of shrapnel struck me in the palm of my left hand. A piece came out under the thumb and my thumb, first and second fingers were split but when I compare my wound with those of so many others I feel it is an insignificant trifle.

"The next thing I knew after I was struck was that I was in an ambulance alone, travelling to the emergency hospital ten miles distant. There I received first treatment and was sent on to the American base hospital being 24 hours on a Red Cross train reaching Pougues les Eaux where they gave me further treatment but did not try to take out any more of the pieces of shrapnel which had been left in at the emergency hospital. As I was about to receive a second operation I was taken with the flu and was sick four weeks and then they feared to open the wound again and asked me how I would like to go home. If I could be of any use I wanted to stay but if not I knew they needed all space for men who couldn't travel. I started for home by way of Paris and was much pleased with that gay city. Though it suffered so it was merrier and brighter than London. I was sorry not to be able to see more of it but had to go when I could. We sailed from Brest on the fine steamer "George Washington" Nov. 11th, the grand day of the ending of the war. There were 1500 wounded men on board on the first steamship to sail with such men. For two days all was tightly shut down as was the case going over. All in place with life preservers, no noise, no cigars or even matches at night and all quiet but after two days the captain felt all was safe and then the lid was lifted and we made the welkin ring. We did our part most mightily toward celebrating the glad event and were sorry for the poor fellows so badly wounded that they were unable to join with us.

Everybody Courteous. "We were but eight days returning and landing in New York we were received with all marks of deference and kindness. Boot-blacks esteemed it a privilege to shine my shoes but no pay accepted; ladies on the street cars would offer me a seat and we were treated like gods. On the sleeper coming west I offered the porter a fee but he shook his head: "no sir, Boss; nothin' doin'; I am proud to serve you."

"They wanted me to stay in New York at the hospital there but I preferred to be nearer home so after a sojourn of a day there and a day in the city I set sail for the west and expected to start for St. Louis Monday or Tuesday and hope they will be able at the hospital there to get the rest of the shrapnel out of my hand. My fingers are stiff from long staying in one position and I can hardly say what will be the final result. One thing is sure; I am as well treated. At the American base hospital we had chicken and turkey and all sorts of nice things and generally fared well except when too uncomfortably near the enemy."

Mr. Pinkerton is looking fine and his beard so alters his appearance that hardly anyone knew him. People here were as polite as in New York and showed him all manner of attention. In behalf of the residents of the city the Journal can say, welcome back to America and home, honored and loved for the faithful services rendered.

C. L. DEPEW RETURNS

C. L. DePew arrived home Saturday from an extended trip in the interest of a Sunday school work which took him into several states.

He first went to Chicago, then to Joliet. From there his itinerary took him to Des Moines and Mason City, Iowa. His next stops were made at Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn.

At Minneapolis he spent some time with J. A. Munson who is now located in that city with the Munson Underwear company. Mr. Munson took Mr. DePew thru the plant which is a marvel of convenience for employees. Every modern facility is found in the plant which includes libraries, social service work, gymnasium and lunch rooms. Mr. DePew was much impressed with the plant.

From Minneapolis Mr. DePew went to Oshkosh, Wis. Here he met Miss Lillian Groves of this city who is a member of the faculty of the Business College in that city. He also met the Rev. W. B. Morris, pastor of the Baptist Temple in Oshkosh. Rev. Mr. Morris used to be state superintendent of the Baptist Sunday School of Illinois and he and Mr. DePew were well acquainted when he was a resident of this state. It is needless to say that both enjoyed the meeting.

On account of the quarantine the work has not been taken up in Jacksonville as it should but many clubs, Sunday school classes and other organizations are planning to adopt orphans. Samuel T. Zachary and family, south of Orleans, have adopted a French child for one year.

W. C. McGuire, federal agent in Feeder Pig Distribution, informs the county agent that Arkansas offers the largest remaining available supply of Feeder Pigs. If any farmer in the corn belt wants to get a supply of these he should write to J. H. McLeod of the Bureau of Markets, Old State House, Little Rock, Ark. It is possible to go to Little Rock and return with a lot of but one day's time. Prospective purchasers will be met by the federal agent and be put in touch with the hog owners.

Preparing Hogs for Slaughter

The U. S. department of agriculture says: In preparing hogs to be slaughtered a fast of 24 hours, plenty of water, careful handling, and rest before slaughtering are all important in securing meat in the best condition to use, either fresh or for curing purposes. Food in the stomach decomposes very rapidly after slaughter, and where the dressing is slow the gases generated often affect the flavor of the meat. Water should be given freely up to the time of slaughter, as it keeps the temperature normal. It is highly important that the animal be not excited in any way sufficiently to raise the temperature of the body. If the animal becomes heated it is better to allow it to rest over night before killing than to risk spoiling the meat. It is also essential that the hog be carefully handled so as not to bruise the body.

Calf Feeding at Weaning Time

Breeders of beef cattle are fully convinced that it pays to push the young animals in order to get them well developed for sale purposes. To prevent calves from losing their calf fat at weaning time, it is a good plan to feed them some grain ration a month or six weeks before weaning time. The effect of the change is scarcely noticeable. A ration commonly used for developing young stock consists of equal parts of ground corn, oats and bran by measure with alfalfa or clover hay in addition. To secure more rapid gains and quicker finish the corn in the above ration may be increased and cottonseed meal or oil meal fed at the rate of 1 pound to every 10 pounds of corn consumed. W. H. Smith.

Cattle Lice

There are three species of cattle lice that attack dairy cows; two of these suck the blood from the cattle and the third feeds on the dry skin and hair. Those that suck the blood do by far the greatest amount of damage, cause considerable irritation and reduce the milk supply. Control measures on young stock are very essential because infested calves do not increase in weight as they should.

Cattle lice infest the animals particularly along the shoulders and upper portion of the neck where the blood supply is greatest. The lice multiply very rapidly as cold weather approaches and are usually most abundant on the animals during January, February and March.

Treatment should not be delayed until large numbers of lice appear for this makes control measures more difficult. Cattle should be treated very soon after they are brought in from the pasture for the winter. Treatment should be repeated twelve or thirteen days after the first application, then once each month thereafter. The use of linseed oil is recommended, owing to the fact that this can be applied with a brush at the time when the animal is cleaning or grooming the animal. About a half pint of raw linseed oil is necessary for each animal, and the cost is about 1c for one application. The oil kills the adult insects, but it does not prevent the eggs from hatching; hence, treatment must be repeated soon after the eggs hatch.

The cow's skin is very susceptible to injury; for this reason an insecticide that is not a skin irritant should be used. It should not be rubbed in too vigorously. The animals should not be covered after an application of linseed oil; they should not be allowed to stand in a stall, nor excited freely until 24 hours after the application. These measures tend to prevent scurfing and burning of the skin, not only with linseed oil, but all other control measures applied to the cow's skin.

Care for Farm Machinery

In the rush of harvesting the matter of properly storing and caring for farm implements is often neglected. They are left in the fields, or if placed under a shed the protection is seldom adequate. The cost of machinery and implements is constantly increasing. Prepare now to protect implements and machinery from exposure during the coming winter. As far as possible, all implements should be placed under a dry shed. Wood work should be painted and all exposed iron and steel parts should be either painted or covered with grease or oil to prevent rusting.

Farm Account Books

The 1919 Farm Account Book is now off the press. The price of the book in quantity to the farm adviser for early delivery will be $2.50 each, regardless of number, plus $1.00 for the special cover imprint. For instance, if you wished 100 books with the cover used by the College of Agriculture the cost would be $250.00. If you wished to have the name of your County Farm Bureau imprinted on the cover, the cost would be $1.00 extra for the order, or $10.50 for 100 books. Single copies mailed to purchasers will cost 15c each. A sample copy will be mailed to the farm adviser at once. Orders should be sent as soon as possible, as printers' prices are subject to change after Dec. 1st, on account of unstable conditions.

Getting the Boys Back on the Farm

If help is at all scarce on the farm, it is very much in order to get an application for a furlough from the local board, fill it out properly, and send it to the boy in the training camp. The local board has assured me that they will lend every assistance in getting these furloughs for the farm boys and I can assure you that we should be glad to serve you in any way that we can in this matter. It has been stated in our papers that the government intends to demobilize the boys in our camps as fast as places can be found for them as that by getting furloughs we cannot only help carry out the government plan but can solve the farm labor problem as well.

Ota Drum, a member on the U. S. S. Ammon, is visiting friends and relatives in the vicinity of Franklin. He entered the naval service of the United States before America declared war and has seen a great deal of ocean life. Yes, it's true that a good workman can get along with mighty poor tools; and it is equally true that a good cook can get up a fine dinner with but insufficient equipment. But, is it necessary? We don't believe so, not in this day when there are so many and so reasonably priced items of kitchen equipment which so lighten the good housewife's labors.

And this is all true of the table setting; one can eat off a pine board and use tin and steel. But, is it necessary?

Oil Heaters - - Hunter's Goods

Why the Estate Hot Storm Eclipses all Others

The interior arrangement of this wonderful heater—shows why it is a wonderful heater. The outward appearance of the Hot Storm is that of an ordinary stove—but inside is housed a marvelous heating system—built just like a hot air furnace. It radiates heat upward, downward and every which way and continually shoots out an enormous volume of pure hot air into the room.

Half to three-quarters of all heat generated in the ordinary stove is wasted—shot up the chimney. In the Estate Hot Storm the loss of heat is reduced to the minimum. The Little Furnace blocks the upward rushing heat, absorbing it and throwing it back against the radiating surfaces of the stove proper. This results in an amazing saving in fuel—a saving so great that your Estate Hot Storm will pay for itself in a few seasons. And after that it will pay you.

FARM COLONIES FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS

U. S. Commissioner of Immigration Proposes Plan for Solving Post-War Problems—Would Redress Vast Acreage of Waste Land.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Redemption of America's waste land by the establishment of farm colonies for returned soldiers, a plan proposed by Frederick C. Howe, United States Commissioner of Immigration for solving post-war problems, is being strongly endorsed here by authorities on agriculture and economics.

The proposed colonies would be developed along the lines followed in California where 6,000 acres were bought by the government last spring and let out to farmers in small holdings. The colony has been successfully operated on a co-operative basis.

Commissioner Howe believes that more colonies should be established throughout the country by the government, each one near a city, where the produce of the farms could be sent to advantage. "The sites should be selected by experts, as was done in establishing shipbuilding sites. Model villages with a common dairy, common farming implements, common forests, playgrounds and pasture lands, are provided in the general plan."

"The farm must be made worth while if we are to stop the influx of people to the city from the country," said Mr. Howe. "The farm must be made profitable to the soldiers returning from Europe. We cannot give them a piece of land to clear of underbrush or a swamp to drain, and then tell them they can cultivate it. They deserve more than that. The only effect of such procedure would be to make the lands more valuable for the owners who had probably bought the lands years before for a few cents."

"The 'Back to the Land' theory is very pretty," Mr. Howe continued. "But the real difficulty is that we always like the other fellow to go back. The farmer is the Cinderella of politics today, for he gets no help, and then we resent it because he complains." The time was never more opportune, in the opinion of authorities here, for extending American agriculture by the simple means of making adequate land allotments to soldiers.

Mr. Howe said that monopoly of land is gradually being done away with.

The movement began during the French revolution, when large feudal estates were divided among the common people," he said. "It has been developed by the Russians, and will spread to Austria-Hungary and Germany. Thus in all those countries the peasant or common working man will finally achieve political power."

"Ownership by each man of something really his own, goes a long way towards making a country prosperous and truly democratic."

WAR LABOR BOARD RAISES MORE WAGES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—

Wages were ordered increased, hours of labor shortened and dismissed employees ordered reinstated by the national war labor board today in nine awards, chief of which was in the case of the Corn Products Refining company. Each award is for the duration of the war and is retroactive. The award in Corn Products Refining company affects employees in plants at Granite City, Argo and Pekin, Illinois and Edgewater, N. J.

The award provides for wages ranging from 45 to 70 cents an hour for employees in the corn process service of the committee. From 35 to 65 cents an hour for those in the shipping and storage service and from 45 to 50 cents for those in the class known as labor service. Prevailing wages in the communities of the several plants are established for the skilled trade workers. The principle of time and a half for all work of more than eight hours and double time for Sunday and holidays is established for all employees. Equal pay for women and men performing the same service and collective bargaining are recognized in the award which is retroactive at the Granite City plant to last June 1 and at the Argo, Edgewater and Pekin plants to last August 1. The company is allowed until December 21 to make back payments.

HAIG REPORTS MOVEMENTS OF BRITISH

London, Nov. 22.—Field Marshal Haig's report on the movements of the British army of occupation issued tonight says:

"The march towards the German frontier is proceeding satisfactorily. Advanced troops of the fourth army have crossed the night of General March, chief of the pushing forward to the east. "The number of guns left behind by the retreating enemy now in our hands exceeds 600. A number of airplanes and quantities of rolling stock have also passed into our possession."

WHEAT ACREAGE IN ILLINOIS INCREASED

Secretary of Illinois Farmers' Institute Issues Booklet Showing How Farmers Responded to Government's Call to Augment Food Supply—Bigger Yields Harvested.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 23.—Illinois' super-production of wheat in 1918, although grown for war needs, will help stay the hunger of conquered peoples of Europe now that victory has come, according to H. E. Young, secretary of the Illinois Farmers' Institute, who has just issued a booklet showing how the state's farmers responded to the government's call to augment the food supply.

"Illinois farmers went over the top by increasing their winter wheat acreage over 10 per cent," says the booklet. "They planted nearly a quarter of a million acres more than the previous fall. The total acreage increase for the United States was about four per cent. Illinois did 15 per cent better than the country at large. So earnest and vigorous was the response of Illinois farmers to the call of the government that 14 per cent of the total winter wheat increase of the entire country was made in Illinois."

Mr. Young says that although Illinois has never produced much spring wheat, a gratifying effort was made by farmers in this crop. Of spring wheat he declares: "The government asked for 100,000. Kane county farmers alone seeded over 21,000 acres or nearly a quarter of the total acreage demanded. Other northern counties responded most nobly, instead of the government's request of 100,000 acres, Illinois planted over 200,000 acres in spring wheat in addition to the 10 per cent in winter wheat already in the ground."

Not only did soil tillers in Illinois increase the acreage of their wheat in 1918, Mr. Young declares, but they harvested bigger yields. "Better seed beds were made, he writes, 'better seed sown and more fertility added to the soil. As a result Illinois produced a record breaking crop of over 45,000,000 bushels, also the largest on record, the average for the state being 25 bushels an acre against 19 and 11 bushels in 1917 and 1916 respectively."

MAKING PLANS TO MOVE YANKS HOME

HEADQUARTERS OF THE AMERICAN FIRST ARMY, NOV. 22.—(By The Associated Press.)

5 p. m.—While as an effective military force the American army remains intact, the homeward movement has already begun. Construction of all kinds has been stopped and contracts and deliveries canceled where possible and the men whose services have been in the other lines of activity are either enroute to ports or plans for their embarkation are underway.

The first to go will be the sick and convalescent wounded. These will be sent home with the greatest possible expedition. Certain divisions, exhausted by replacement drafts until only the skeletons remain, are also going home.

On of the biggest of the present problems is the land transport to the seaports. With the coming of winter the French need almost the entire capacity of railroads to distribute fuel, food and other supplies thruout the country. This will delay the transportation of Americans.

The army authorities are grappling with hundreds of minor problems, both legal and physical inherent or possible demobilization. While it is realized that the decision on most of these problems rest with Washington there is nevertheless much speculation in the army regarding the precise plan of demobilization—whether, following the British plan, a form of demobilization by trades will be adopted, whether the existing organizations will return intact or whether the army will be reformed and discharged on a regional basis.

ILLINOIS EASILY WINS FROM MAROONS

Fulfill Expectations by Defeating Stag's Green Team 29 to 0—Other Important Saturday Football Contests.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—The University of Illinois eleven, playing in its best style and fulfilling the expectations of its adherents, today defeated the University of Chicago 29 to 0 on Stag Field. The result ended the Illinois' claim to whatever championship honors are likely to be evolved from the 1918 season.

The local team showed little improvement over its previous appearances. Shifts in its lineup due to injuries of regulars, reduced its team play to a minimum and some of the substitutes were so green that they hardly knew the rules.

Illinois opened with a bag of tricks in the second period and in the third spilled its contents recklessly, cross-bucks, shifts, forward passes and end runs from each other in rapid succession that soon had Stag's men dizzy. The Illinois even tried an old fashioned double cross-buck but Stegman, the only Chicago line-man who seemed able to analyze plays, broke that up. Illinois completed eight forward passes in the second half out of fifteen attempts. Most of the successful ones were of the long variety. Chicago's passing was spectacular. Only one, McCullom and Ellem, gained several yards.

The crowd was one of the smallest that ever witnessed a contest between the two schools. Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 23.—The University of Michigan outplayed the Michigan Aggies here this afternoon defeating the East Lansing eleven 21 to 6, chiefly by their ability to break thru the visitors' defense.

The Aggies' only score came in the final few minutes of play, when two fast forward passes close to the Wolverine goal enabled Archer to get over.

GREAT LAKES WINS STUBBORN GAME

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 23.—

In one of the most bitterly contested games ever witnessed on a local gridiron, the eleven of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station of Chicago, trailed the colors of the Annapolis midshipmen in defeat here this afternoon by a score of 7 to 6, the narrow margin of a goal kicked.

The game was a thriller from start to finish—one that is seldom witnessed on a college campus in these days. The sensation was coupled with Ellison's brilliant play to touchdown. It happened after the Great Lakes runner had sprinted to within thirty yard mark of the navy's goal line and the last one of the pursuing tacklers had been disposed of by his interferences when Saunders, one of the first string substitutes dashed from his seat on the bench into the football arena and brought the fleeing runner down from behind. General excitement prevailed for a time and some of the supporters of Great Lakes made a rush for the intruding Middle and began pummeling him but quiet was soon restored and the game proceeded. Ellison had a clear field at the time and the officials ruled a legitimate touchdown.

This incident came virtually as a climax to the stubbornness of the fight that each team put into the game although there were no other game although there were no roughness.

A SERVICE OF WORSHIP FOR THE HOME ON SUNDAY, NOV. 24TH, 1918, 10 A. M.

(By a Jacksonville Minister)

Invocation.
Our Heavenly Father! We praise you with every faculty of our being. Direct our thoughts, hear our prayers and be with us in our spiritual meditation. Amen.
Hymn.
Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer,
That calms me from a world of care
And bids me seek my Father's throne.
Make all my wants and wishes known.
In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has often found relief.
And oft escaped the tempter's snare,
By thy return, sweet hour of prayer.
Scripture lesson.

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled neither let it be afraid. * * * Then return the disciples unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is nigh unto Jerusalem, a Sabbath Day journey off. And when they were come in they went into an upper room. John 14:27. Acts 1:12-13.

Hymn.
My Savior as Thou wilt, O may
Thy will be mine!
Into Thy hand of love I would my all resign.

Thru sorrow or thru joy, conduct me as Thine own,
And help me still to say, My Lord Thy will be done.

Prayer.
Almighty God, our Father! The heavens declare your glory and the earth proclaims Your power. You are not far from each one of us. To us you are an ever-present God. We know you thru Jesus Christ. Create within us clean hearts that our lives may be earthly stories with heavenly meanings. Help us to translate the Bible truth back into life.

We have been read out of the address of conflict into the valley of peace. Our soldiers fought beneath the Stars and Stripes but over these there was the snow white banner of the Cross of Christ. We bring you our gratitude in the form of a sacred pledge of loyalty to the affairs of your Kingdom. This is our thank-offering for 1918.

God bless our homes and churches and schools. God bless our soldiers and sailors. Some will return to us bearing wounds of honor. Grant that none shall return bearing moral wounds that never heal.

O, God, assist us in removing selfishness from our lives and forgive our sins. We pray thru Jesus, the Christ, Your son and our Savior. Amen.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Never before in history has there been as good a time as at the present to buy land as an investment. With the war over, business will get on a solid basis. The United States will have to replenish the devastated countries, which is going to take a long time; we have the ships to do our exporting, we have the materials, we have the provisions and the men to put it there. Prices on farm products are bound to be high and land will be higher. That land is a safe investment is proven by large capitalists making inquiries, the last few days, with the prospect of buying large tracts of land. I have farms of all sizes and kinds. Come and see what I have to offer. Also, city property of all kinds, and money to loan.

unless he decides to walk with God.

The upper room is a place of prayer. It is a place where the Christian meets God and where God meets the Christian. In the upper room you pray to "your Father in secret." It will become a Bethel in which you re-dedicate our life to God.

The upper room is a place of spiritual meditation. This meditation must proceed all spiritual growth. If you have an upper room of spirit meditation you will ever push God out of your life; on will never have serious doubts about the great verities of our religion. Your honest doubts will be stepping stones to active Christian faith.

The upper room is a place of safety. You will go to it as a bird goes to its retreat in the evening, to temptation can overpower you after you have been in the upper room. Your spiritual vitality will be quickened and your power of resistance will be greater as you return to take your place in the daily program of life.

The Disciples spent ten days in the upper room, days of prayer, meditation, waiting, and there followed the greatest revival in the history of the church. The upper room experience will reform and transform your life. Prepare your upper room program today.

FUNERALS

Proctor.

The funeral services of Dorothy Marie Proctor were held Monday afternoon at three o'clock at Jacksonville cemetery, in charge of the Rev. M. L. Pontius. Miss Fern Haigh sang most beautifully "Sometimes We'll Understand." The flowers were cared for by Misses Anna and Belle Howard. The bearers were Charles Howard, Newton, James and Albert Wilson.

Lavery.

At the late residence, 623 East College street, the funeral of the late Mr. Lavery was conducted yesterday morning by Father Sloan who in a solemn and impressive manner read the beautiful and eloquent service for the dead. Mrs. William McCarty was the bearer of a great many beautiful flowers sent by loving friends who wished to show their esteem for the deceased.

At the close of the service the remains were taken to Vandalia or entombment which will be this morning. The bearers were Messrs. John D. Cain, J. W. Morgan, A. W. Becker, Walter Longman, Edward Brennan and Edward Keating.

We have some dandy NEW RECORDS that you will want for Thanksgiving Day. Come in and hear them.
J. BART JOHNSON.

HER NEPHEW KILLED

Mrs. R. E. Henry received word yesterday of the death of her nephew, Raymond Love of Odin, Ill., who was killed in action Sept. 29th. He entered the army soon after the beginning of the war and fought in many hard battles. His mother was well known here as she had visited in the city a number of times, but she did not live to see her son a soldier. Mrs. Herman Ellis, Mrs. Frank Kuehn and Mrs. Kiel were also aunts of the young man.

The Farmer

Do you know that the man with 40, 80, or 160 acres of land has one of the best and safest investments in the world? He is the Chief Executive and Personal Representative of his estate and his table groans with the luxuries that the millionaire in his palace would envy; for there is the fruits in season, and vegetables without limit or stint and cereals the whole year around yellow legged chickens, turkey pig and lamb and beef ever sweet and fresh with a flavor that cannot be bought in the best market. Yet, it is the farmer's daily fare. There are no certain hours that he must be at his post or be considered tardy, there is a constant change of scenery and work that keeps him fresh and vigorous; there is time for study and recreation and he can go to town, a picnic, or to the Fair without the thought of his business stopping or being neglected.

He has a safety in his investment that there is in no other business for his land cannot burn up or blow away or rust out but gets more valuable with time and cultivation.

If you want a farm, come and see me.

EPIDEMIC COSTLY TO INSURANCE COMPANIES

The number of cases of influenza which have occurred in Jacksonville in past months seems insignificant indeed when the epidemic is considered in a broad way. A despatch from Newark, N. J., recently printed in the National Underwriter, to which W. P. Wilson, Prudential agent of this city calls attention, states that in five weeks up to Nov. 4, the Prudential Life Insurance Co. paid $7,096,000 in influenza claims. During the four years of the war the company has paid only $2,500,000 on account of war casualties.

The same publication already referred to gives a list of 40 or 50 insurance companies, together with the amounts paid on account of influenza or pneumonia. Some of the smaller companies have paid only a few thousands, but the payments by the larger companies have run to big figures. The Penn. Mutual's payments have totaled $1,486,420. The Aetna Life $816,752, the Provident Life & Trust $885,000, the Sun Life of Canada, $515,623, and the war risk bureau of the U. S. $170,000,000.

DEATHS

Ousley

Jesse Ousley died recently at his home in Washington, D. C., according to a message received by his sister, Mrs. M. C. Clark, of South West street. Mr. Ousley, who was a veteran of the Civil war, was for a long time a resident of this community and many of his old friends will regret to hear of his death.

Norman.

News has been received here by relatives of the sudden death of Mrs. Mayme Norman, wife of Mr. John Norman, formerly chef at the Pacific hotel. Death occurred Nov. 17, of heart disease at her home in North Bend, Neb. The news came as a sudden shock to her many friends and relatives.

There is left to mourn besides her husband, two children, Norma aged 4 years and Buddie aged 2 years, her many sisters and father-in-law, her mother having preceded her in death some years ago.

Burial was at North Bend, Neb. Her husband is very low.

C. D. Loneragan, known to many people in this city, died at his home in Kansas City Thursday, Nov. 21, as the result of pneumonia. The deceased was born in Jacksonville and was a resident here until a comparatively few years ago. He was forty-nine years of age and is survived by one sister, Miss Nellie Loneragan, of this city. Mr. Loneragan had an excellent life record and was a man held in high esteem by those who knew him well.

The funeral will be held in Kansas City and burial will take place there.

Hiler.

Mrs. Lena Hiler died Friday morning at her home in Virden, Ill. Death being due to pneumonia. The remains were brought to the undertaking parlors in Waverly Saturday. Shoft services will be held at the cemetery in Waverly at one o'clock today, in charge of Rev. W. J. Campbell, of the First church.

She was married in 1901 to Olin Hiler, of Waverly, and is survived by her husband and three children, Mrs. Lucille Lyon, Waverly, Ill. Dorothy and Alfred at home. Also survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Carr; two sisters, Miss Ida Carr and Mrs. Martha Batten, and two brothers, Thmer and Ira, all of Waverly.

Newby.

Mrs. J. L. Johnson, who lives northwest of Jacksonville, has received news of the death of her sister, Miss Della Newby, which occurred at the home of another sister, Mrs. George Westhyderman at Griffin, Ind. The news of Miss Newby's death will be heard with sorrow by many Jacksonville people who enjoyed her friendship and appreciated her great worth. Miss Newby was born May 25, 1878, near Markham, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newby, both of whom are now deceased. Miss Newby was a trained nurse of special capability and manifested always the largest interest and devotion in her work. She received her training at Our Savior's hospital and graduated there twelve years ago. At different times she was in service at both assavant and Our Savior's hospitals but the greater part of the time engaged in private work.

It was about a year and a half ago that Miss Newby suffered a paralytic stroke and since that time her health has gradually failed. After being a member of the household of Mrs. Shoemaker in Jacksonville for some time she went to the home of her sister, Mrs. Johnson, where she received the most solicitous care. About three weeks ago Miss Newby went to the home of her sister, Mrs. Westhyderman at Griffin. A few days ago her condition became serious and she grew rapidly worse until the end came. Besides her sister Miss Newby is sister and Elmer of Nortonville and Clarence E. Newby of Watkins, Colo.; also two half sisters, Mrs. J. L. Johnson and Miss Anna Newby and two half-brothers, George and Albert Newby of Cleveland, Ohio.

The remains are expected here Tuesday and announcement of the funeral will be made later.

McConnell.

The remains of Mrs. Edward McConnell, who died suddenly at her home in Los Angeles last Monday, Nov. 18, are expected in Jacksonville Monday, in accordance with a telegram received by John G. Reynolds. Mrs. McConnell had not been in robust health for some time but her death came suddenly. She was stricken while at the telephone and friends and relatives who found her afterward believe that she was in the act of attempting to communicate with a physician. Mrs. McConnell's maiden name was Julia Walton and she was for many years a resident of this city.

MAJOR H. C. WOLTMAN
First of Morgan County Army Men To Return.

After attending the public schools she was a student at Jacksonville Female Academy. She was married to M. R. Garretson of St. Louis and one daughter Nellie, was born to them. Early in their married life the husband died and Mrs. Garretson was married Dec. 7, 1874, to the late Edward McConnell. He was for many years a member of the Morgan county bar and served thru one term as state senator. For a period of years he was identified with the Jacksonville Courier as editorial writer.

The McConnell home was 730 West State street and their married life was a very happy one. As matron of this home Mrs. McConnell accorded to all the most generous hospitality and unvarying cordiality. Mrs. McConnell's daughter died after a brief illness and the deceased never recovered from the shock of this bereavement. Later Mr. McConnell passed away and it was then that Mrs. McConnell decided to make her home in California. She became a resident of Los Angeles but her interest in Jacksonville affairs and people was unflagging. It had often been her expressed wish that at the time of her death she should be brought to this city, and in fact, altho the end came suddenly she had made practically all of her own funeral arrangements.

It is expected that the funeral services will be held at the Reynolds undertaking rooms on Tuesday, but definite announcement will be made later.

EXEMPTION BOARD NEWS

Gay Hutson has returned to Jacksonville from Garden City, Long Island, where he was sent a number of weeks ago by the local board after a special induction order from Washington. He is a cadet aviator and was released from the service because of physical injury. At the time of the accident he was instructing a pupil who by a wrong shift, lost control of the machine and a fall of several thousand feet resulted. Cadet Hutson regained partial control of the machine but was too near the ground to escape injury. Because he had not yet been commissioned and because his armistice was signed he was given an honorable discharge from the service.

PROMPT ACTION PREVENTED BAD FIRE.

A fire alarm was sent in about 11 o'clock Saturday night from the Alexander apartments on West State street, where Mrs. W. L. Alexander had found fire in the boiler room. Chief Hunt and the three men now serving with him in the department made a quick run with the use of the chemical flames were soon extinguished.

Mrs. Alexander excluded all trait from the boiler room so that there was nothing to fan the flames. The fire was confined chiefly to the basement and the damage was insignificant. However, early discovery probably prevented serious fire damage. It is very difficult to get at the exact cause of the fire. Some railway ties were piled not far from the boiler door. One of these was on fire near the ceiling and the flue had been communicated to the woodwork. There are no exposed electric wires, the boiler was not overheated and about the only solution seems to be that a flying ember may have come thru the open furnace door. The alarm was sent in from a neighbor's house as Mrs. Alexander could not use her own phone.

SOLDIERS MAY SOON RETURN FROM CAMPS.

As noted elsewhere, Major H. C. Woltman is expected home this week from a southern camp as he has sent a telegram conveying this information. A recent order given to the railroad department which provides transportation for 170,000 soldiers in the course of the next two weeks, has given the hope to many Morgan county people that their sons will be with them for Thanksgiving day. No accurate information is at hand as to just how demobilization is to be accomplished, but the hope of returning soldiers this week is evidently not without foundation.

MAJOR WOLTMAN WILL SOON BE HOME

Telegram Indicates His Work With Medical Reserve Corps is to End This Week.

A telegram received yesterday by Mrs. H. C. Woltman from her husband, Major H. C. Woltman, stated that he expects to arrive in Jacksonville in the course of a very few days. The telegram indicated that this will be a home coming for Major Woltman, and that he is expecting early release from army duty. He has been located recently at Camp Bowie, Tex., having been sent there after service in a number of camps.

Major Woltman was the first Jacksonville physician to enter his medical reserve corps and soon after receiving his commission as a captain was sent to Camp Funston. Subsequently he was at Camp Dodge, then at an Oklahoma training field and because of special efficiency shown was made an instructor in the use of gas masks.

He was then detailed for instruction of officers in several camps and for a number of months was located at Camp Pike Little Rock, Ark. As indicated by his most recent service has been at Camp Bowie. Six months ago because of proficiency in his work he was promoted and became a major.

Letters of Interest from Morgan County Boys in the Country's Service.

From H. C. Huffaker.

from the front quite a ways so postponed writing till I arrived where the hot stuff flies.

Miss Jennie F. Grassly, teacher in the David Prince school, has received the following letter from her cousin, H. C. Huffaker: Y. M. C. A. LeFoyer du Soldat, Union Franco-Americaine, October 31, 1918.

Dear Cousin: Yours of July 23 at hand. When I received it I was away over and get an aviation balloon before we get wise to it.

I picked up a German rifle the other day but don't think I will be able to take it home for I have a big enough pack now.

An aerial battle between two machines is sure a pretty thing to see.

I have come to the conclusion that a rabbit's foot wouldn't do much good is a case like this for there is no good and bad luck over here—it's all the same.

I have caught the lagrippe and believe me I got it right too but I'll be all right in a day or so.

Norman Huffaker was on the same boat coming over. He is in the 108 Engineers. He promised to write and so did I, but I lost his address and he hasn't written.

It begins to look now like Black Jack knows what he is talking about for Bulgaria has thrown up the sponge and I don't think it will be long till the rest of them will do the same.

There's a little blonde headed French soldier taking a shave and he's only got a little fuz on his chin and he's having more trouble than I have getting thru barb wire entanglements. If he had a bunch of hazel brush like mine I don't know what he would do.

Well, this is about all the news I can think of at present so will close for this time but will write again at my earliest opportunity. I don't get much of a chance sometimes.

Beg to remain as ever,
Yours,
Private H. C. Huffaker.
Co. C, 37th Engrs.

From Corporal Herbert Hyatt

The following letter has been received by Mrs. Marie Hyatt of 942 West Morton avenue, from her husband, Corporal Herbert Hyatt, a member of Co. A, 803 Pioneer Infantry, American Expeditionary Forces, France: Somewhere in France, Oct. 13, 1918.

My Dear Wife:

I received your letter today which you wrote to me when I was in camp. It was about a month reaching me and you know I was glad to get it. I've already read it several times. Mother's letter was also enclosed in it and I feel one hundred per cent better in knowing that mother is well and that you are getting along all right. How is everyone? I'd like to write you a description of the town I'm living in, but the censor's rules forbid, so I'll content myself in a partial description of the house I'm billeted in.

It's a large stone house built in the 17th century with large fire places and stone floors. Most of the buildings I've seen here in France are built of stone. Coal is scarce so we necessarily must use wood. I don't know how long we'll stay here. I hope we'll stay here for we have a good dry place to sleep. You don't need money here very much as there is nothing to spend it for and my good, kind and rich old Uncle Sam gives me tobacco every few days.

I can't tell you about the war situation, for you at home know more than we do here. However, there is much that I will be able to tell you when I get back home. I saw Dr. Reid's son one day at a camp we passed while on a march. Be sure and write often for one worries a great deal when he doesn't hear from home. You see I've only received one letter since Sept. 13.

Army life has done me much good both in health and character. For instance, my health is that of a prize fighter and I've learned to grit my teeth and hear many things that I never even thought I could stand in civil life. Hurrah for the army. I've learned to eat cold corn-beef and hard tack several days at a time and I still smile.

From Corporal Herbert Hyatt, Co. A, 803 Pioneer Infantry, American Expeditionary Forces, France.

William Hale Writes to Mother

Sept. 20, 1918.

Well, Mother: I will try and drop you a few lines to let you know that I am well and hope these few lines find you all the same. I am out in a French apple orchard writing this and the birds chirping make me feel like I want to be back home. But I don't want to come back until the battle is won, and I don't think it will be very long until it is won, if the good work goes on like it has been for the past few days, I think I will be able to eat Christmas dinner at home.

We are not very far from the firing line now, and I only wish I was trained enough so that I could go up to the front. I am over here now and I am just aching for the day to come when I can see the front line trenches. But as a good many of the fellows say, I guess I will be just as anxious to come away from them as I am anxious to get to them. Nevertheless, I am here to do my share and am willing to do it with a clear and good conscience. I believe I will be able to come home and tell you folks what a great and good war we had over here.

This certainly is a beautiful country. It seems funny to hear the French talk and you do not understand what they are saying, but I suppose it is just as funny to them to hear us talk. They have some very fine homes and they also have some poor ones. It is a great sight to see the pretty castles and the wonderful scenery. You have seen moving pictures of the old country. Well, that is just how it looks over here, only this is the real stuff.

When we first landed here we had a rain every day but now we are having sunshine and it feels fine to get out and lie on the grass and have sun shine down on you, and to watch the farmers pull their threshing outfit along the road with oxen. They pull with their horns. You can see women and children driving them. And the trains they have over here are sure queer things, and the fences are made of dirt and rocks.

We had a Y. M. C. A. man speaker here last night and he certainly cheered the boys up some. He had just come back from the front and he had some good news, which is that things looked very much like we would get to eat Christmas dinner at home. I hope so, anyway.

Well, I will close for this time, hoping to hear from you soon. I will try and write once a week anyhow. It wouldn't do any good to write any oftener for you wouldn't get it any quicker. With love and best wishes,
Your son,
Billy.

P. S. Tell all the folks I said hello, and wish they would write even if I don't write to them. You can tell them all the news I could.

From Pvt. James O. Weir

The following letters have been received by relatives here of Private James Oscar Weir, who is with Co. A, 803 Pioneer Infantry, A. E. F.

My Dear Wife: I receive your kind and welcome letter and was glad to hear from you. It found me well and hope when these few lines reach you they will find you well. I would have written sooner but I have not had time to do any writing. I cannot write any oftener because I am too far from home.

I don't know where Oscar Yates is as I am not with him. Give Cecil and all my best regards. I have been promoted and I am a first class private. That makes me draw a little more pay. I will close and will write more next time. Remember me in your prayers.

Your loving husband,
Private James Oscar Weir,
Co. A, 803 Pioneer Infantry.
My Dear Mother and Father:

I take great pleasure this evening in dropping you a few lines to let you know that I am well and truly hope when these few lines come to hand they will find you both well and doing well.

I am certainly seeing some of the world. It is a pretty place here and I am having a very nice time so far. I cannot write much this time. My Bible is a great help to me and I read it every night close and am trying all I know how to follow its teachings. Give my best regards to all of the boys and tell them to write to me. I will be home after a while. Tell Walter and Susie that I said to write to me. My address will be at the head of this letter. Tell all of the people to write to me as I would like to hear from them all. I think of you all the time. How is Charlie Hall getting along? I heard that he had taken a back seat.

My watch keeps good time so far and I can not thank you all enough for it. I want you to answer this as soon as you get it for I want you and papa to write as often as you can. Tell Aunt Pearl that I said look for a letter from me for I am going to write to her. Give her my love and best regards, and also Aunt Mary and Mattie.

Well mama, I will close with lots of love to you both. Remember me in your prayers.

Your loving son,
Private James Oscar Weir.

Van Stice Writes

Camp Dix,
Nov. 15, 1918.

Dear Folks:

Received your letter this morning, and as usual always glad to hear from home. Hoping that this letter will find you all well. I am feeling so good again I hardly know what to do with myself. Yes I beat it right after breakfast this morning and started up New Jersey avenue and there are several Y. M. C. A's on this street. And you can bet your sweet life that I am in the last one I sure got in the wrong one yesterday. I was standing in front of one of the Y's, talking to a friend of mine. This Y. had been empty for some time. Anyway there was a young lady that came to the door and invited us to come in. Of course we had to go in. And when we got inside there were about six or eight pretty nice looking. One of them came over to me and said that she had been looking for a man like me all morning. And she put me to hanging curtains. She said I sure was lucky that I came around because they didn't have any ladder. Well it wasn't so bad. We had lots of nice fruit to eat. I told them that I didn't mind the work, but if my captain caught me up there hanging curtains that it would be curtains for me. And of course by this writing you can see that I must have played hooky yesterday, and you people can't blame me for I learned it at school. Well, it won't be long until some of us will be coming home. And they will be some to go across to clear up and do guard duty. But they will pick those in class A one. That lets me out again. I am in class five now. My captain asked me the other day if I was going to re-enlist. I told him I hardly thought I would and if I did it would be in the Salvation Army. Have you heard from Babe lately? I sure would like to see him. I suppose Sergeant G. W. Stice is making it all right. He hasn't got anything on me. I have been kitchen police two or three times. Ha! Ha! Well we can't all be lucky. I saw Ruess the other day. He is still working at the hospital, and H. Davey, I see him every day. He was going to play hooky with me today but his nerve failed him. He don't seem to like kitchen police very much. Well it isn't very pleasant to get up in the morning about five and wash pans and scrub all day. Well it is all in army life, and can't last much longer. Will close for this time, hoping to hear from you soon.

As ever,
V. A. Stice.

From Omer Melton

Mrs. L. D. Melton of route 5 is in receipt of the following letter from her son, Omer Melton, now stationed at Camp Forrest, Ga.:

Camp Forrest,
Nov. 18, 1918.

Dear Mother:

I will try and answer your welcome letter and card I received the other day.

Well I am glad that you are visiting around and hope you are having a good time.

They have taken two more bunches out of our company and they have not taken me out.

I don't know whether I will be home very soon or not, but I don't think I will get to see France. They have to have some fellows down here to guard things so I might be one of them.

I was up to Lookout Mountain last Sunday and I got papa a present. I guess you will have it by the time you get this letter. It is some place. You can see 80 miles and a train looks like a pencil. I went up on the incline railroad, and it is some railroad. It is almost straight up and you can see a long ways. Write and tell me what papa thinks of what I sent. Tell him it was made of the wood up on Lookout Mountain.

You wanted to know how much we cook at one meal. It takes 6 to 8 bushels of potatoes, 1 case of corn at a meal, 1 barrel of sugar a week, that is when we had 270 men. We have 30 dozen eggs and 30 loaves of bread toasted and ham and 1 case of corn flakes for breakfast. It takes a lot to feed a soldier boy.

I am mailing you a folder of some pictures of camp life. You can see how we eat, sleep and drill and also how the barracks are built.

You want to be careful and not get the flu.

I am feeling just fine. I hope this finds you all the same. Tell all I said hello. God bless you all.

Your loving son,
Omer Melton.

The Brunswick

Is a Musical Instrument NOT AN ORDINARY PHONOGRAPH

Owners of ordinary phonographs are confined to the use of one make of record. But, no one make offers the complete selection everyone would like.

The Brunswick plays records of any make. And it plays them better than the machine for which each was originally intended. For the Brunswick was designed originally to be the Universal Phonograph. It is equipped with two distinct sound reproducers, instantly interchangeable. One reproducer is distinctly for the splendid Pathe Records, hitherto generally available to the American public—one for all other popular makes of Records. Both steel and jewel point needles are provided.

The reason The Brunswick gives a more perfect rendition of all records can be seen in the wooden-wall sound chamber. It is built like a violin—and the same fundamentals that are responsible for the feeling and vibrancy of a violin tone gives a tonal quality to the reproduction of a Brunswick Phonograph which has made it the choice of true lovers of music.

FAVORS INTERNATIONAL INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

American Delegate to International Institute of Agriculture Suggests Plan to Block German Encroachments in Foreign Markets—Advocates Intensive Development Plan.

Rome, Oct. — (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—David Lubin, American delegate to the International Institute of Agriculture, has suggested to Italian and British government officials and financiers a plan to block German encroachments in foreign markets by teaching the backward peoples of the world how to manufacture their own goods. It is proposed to send a commission to the United States to advocate the adoption of this method.

Mr. Lubin's plan is to organize an international industrial league which would establish commercial bases in zones of foreign trade and to teach the people of these zones important methods of business and manufacture. It pointed out that this would eliminate the necessity for them to purchase manufactured articles either from Germany or from any others.

"At a first glance, it would seem inadvisable for the English or American exporter to help build up industries in a foreign market," said Mr. Lubin. "They would feel that they were, by teaching raw labor to become expert, destroying their own trade, and even running the risk of having that labor return to compete in their own home market. I think reflection will show that there is really little to fear from the legitimate competitor. In fact the competitor is, as a rule a customer, and the stronger the competition the more valuable the custom. Both the United States and Great Britain are competitors but they are also each other's best customer. Neither has much to fear from Morocco, for instance, as a competitor, but likewise they have little to gain at present by her custom. However, if Morocco be converted into an industrial center, it would become a customer."

"Under the present sample trunk method of increasing business, there is no business worth while for anybody, there, but if Morocco were taught to use her raw labor, she would start to manufacture and right off could be sold raw products and machinery. There would also be a gain on financial investments, on banking transactions, on her increased volume of exports and imports."

"Also once this intensive plan of development were started, we would have a block to the German method we have complained of, which was always dangerous because German business was accompanied by political meddling, in the country involved, and the profits carried back home to help build up her armies, and her armies used to bulldoze the world. "We are under the impression that we are living in the twentieth century, but from an industrial point of view this is true of only a small part of the world. The backward countries are still scratching the earth with a pointed stick, sowing seed by hand, reaping by a sickle, making shoes and clothes by hand. The differences between the old world of the hand and the new world of the machine is seen right here in the basin of the Mediterranean where civilization was born two thousand years ago. Much of this immense territory is still where it was two thousand years ago, hy? Because it hasn't the machines of France, England, the United States."

"It is in the interest of the nations now fighting Germany and there set the machines at work, teach their leaders business organization and their workers how to become experts."

EXPECT LARGE DEMAND FOR AUTO LICENSES

Four Hundred Thousand Plates Ordered by Secretary of State for 1919—Actual Work on Roads to Begin Soon.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 23.—Four hundred thousand automobiles license plates have been ordered by Secretary of State Louis D. Emmerson to supply the 1919 demand, based estimates on the number issued the present year under war conditions. Up to the middle of November, 1918, 389,000 number plates were issued. Inasmuch as license fees vary from $4.50 to $20, according to the engine power of the machine, many dollars will pour into the road building fund to which all license money accrues.

With the war at an end and restrictions lifted from road building projects and transportation of highway materials, it is expected, actual work on Illinois roads will begin soon. Already there is approximately $4,000,000 in the road fund.

Application blanks for 1919 auto license plates have been sent to every city and village, clerk and to certain agencies in Chicago, including the secretary of state's office there, from the blanks can be obtained. A hundred thousand plates are on hand.

Re-assignment of old numbers will be possible until December 11 under the statute.

The new license plate is brown background with white enamel figures and lettering. They cost the state twenty-six cents a piece.

GERMAN IRON CROSS IS PRIZE SOUVENIR

American Soldiers Gladly Give Tobacco and Money to Obtain Badge—Every German Officer Occasionally Part With Cross.

With the American Troops Northwest of Verdun, Oct.—Correspondence of The Associated Press).—The German Iron Cross is the prize souvenir and to obtain one the American soldier will give several boxes of tobacco and even money in the bargain. It is an interesting commentary on the esteem, or lack of esteem, in which the cross is held by Fritz that he parts with it in a great number of cases and generally with only expressions of contempt for it and its significance. Even German officers give up their crosses occasionally.

Here and there is to be found an American soldier who has a German machine or automatic gun as a souvenir, but only rarely because they generally have a military value and are too bulky to be used or carried. German carbines and rifles are more popular though they too are almost impossible to carry in the way.

Greatly coveted though seldom found are the revolvers that German officers carry. Unlike the American soldier, the German seldom if ever carries such a weapon. Even the numerous "non-coms" of the German army have them only rarely. Consequently they are scarce and are all the more popular because they are easily carried, useful and handy. They are good weapons, too.

Every German soldier carries as a rule a mass of documents on his person, ranging from written and unwritten postcards to sentimental, illustrated saws and sayings, colored pictures and the like. At the start they were in demand as souvenirs but are now far too common. Even the inevitable diary is no longer popular. It is invariably written in illegible German script and contains little if anything of interest.

Wrist watches have been considered since the beginning of the war as the legitimate booty of the conqueror, and many and many a watch of enemy make now runs well or badly upon the arm of some victor. Ninety-nine of every hundred watches, of course, are virtually useless, but the hundredth, originally the property of some officer or aviator is valuable and a thing of beauty.

The list thus far comprises chiefly the pure souvenir or remembrance of the battle. In every respect, however, the Germans have left behind a whole grist of utensils—tool boxes, cartridge cases and general utensils—that are eagerly picked up by those who want some additional facility for carrying their possessions with safety and ease.

PRO-GERMANS WARNED AGAINST DISLOYALTY

Chicago, Nov. 23.—German propagandists in Chicago who believed that the end of the war would open the doors for praise and defense of Germany have received a jolt from the Department of Justice here. A warning has been issued to German sympathizers declaring they are just as guilty of sedition now as they were before the signing of the armistice if they make disloyal remarks.

A number of persons charged with defending Germany's course in the war have been arraigned. Most of them showed signs of having been roughly handled by loyal persons resenting their statements.

THANKSGIVING FOR PASSAVANT HOSPITAL

Will the People of Jacksonville Remember this Worthy Institution?

Some noble work has been done for many worthy enterprises, not only the latest, the W. U. U. which is right and proper and now we should remember that we have worthy objects right here at home. It is up to the people to decide whether they want Passavant hospital to continue its noble work or not. It is primarily a home institution and as such amply deserves all the support it can get. It needs and deserves the aid of all people for its doors are open to every one regardless of creed, color or religious preferences.

This year, as usual, it will be thankful for donations of all kinds of canned goods, vegetables, fruits and in fact anything that can be used in the family. Many persons are buying canned goods as they have not had much to put up. As the hospital cannot have a donation day and reception the various churches of the city are asked to send their contributions as follows, each church to its own representative, and by this means it will get due credit and the donations will later be sent to the hospital. It is most earnestly hoped that the response will be generous for there is no more worthy object on which favors can be bestowed.

George Ross was arrested by Officer McGinnis Saturday morning charged with stealing a revolver and a number of other articles from Charles Witwer who is in charge of the Arthur Harmon farm southeast of the city. A companion of the name of Thornton escaped the police. He has relatives in Virden and it is thought that he boarded a Burlington freight for that city.

The two boys, who are thought to be the ones who escaped from the Springfield jail after sawing away the bars a few days ago, were employed by Mr. Witwer to shuck corn. Yesterday morning they stole a number of articles, among them a revolver and left the team standing in the field. Ross is locked in the police station. He was in jail in Sangamon county for stealing a team of horses and probably will be returned there.

RICHARDSON WILL FILED BY PROBATE

Land Holdings in Point Neighborhood Left to Son and Daughter — Mrs. Richardson Has Life Estate.

The will of the late George S. Richardson has been filed in the office of County Clerk Boruff and dispose of valuable land holdings. The document bears the date of August 1, 1918, with Alice M. Richardson and Charles G. Middleton as the witnesses. Albert E. Richardson and Joseph W. Wilson, respectively son and son-in-law of the testator, are named executors of the will. Mr. Richardson provided for the payment of debts and funeral expenses and bequeathed to his wife, Frances Anne Richardson, all of his household goods, live stock, farming implements and personal property of every kind. He bequeathed also to Mrs. Richardson the dwelling house located near Point church, together with barns, outbuildings, orchards etc., for the period of her life. Subject to the life estate the property is bequeathed to Laura M. Wilson, daughter of the testator.

In the fourth provision of the will it is set forth that it is the desire of the testator to insure his wife and annual income of $1,000 to be received by her in lieu of dower, and together with other provisions in the will for her benefit in lieu of all other rights or interests in the estate allowed her by law, including a widow's award. He therefore provided that Laura E. Wilson, and Albert E. Richardson, daughter and son shall pay to Mrs. Richardson on or before the first day of March of each year the sum of $1,000 each to pay one half of this amount. It is directed that all debts and funeral expenses together with the cost of administration, are to be paid by the two children named, within the period required by law.

The daughter is directed to keep the dwelling house and buildings insured and to keep the premises in good repair so that Mrs. Richardson shall be assured a satisfactory home for the period of her life. Subject to these provisions Mr. Richardson bequeathed to his daughter the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 32, all in township 15, which has been reserved for school purposes; also the south half of the southwest quarter of section 33 and 5 acres off of the east side of the southeast quarter of the south east quarter of section 32. This land is all located in township 15 and range 11.

Further, subject to the provisions already made, the testator bequeathed to his son, Albert E. Richardson, the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 33, except one acre north and 15 acres off of the west side of the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 33; the north half of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 33 and acres off of the east side of the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 32, all in township 15, range 11.

READY FOR CHRISTMAS IN ALL THE STORES

Stocks Were Never More Attractive — Early Buying the Rule.

Responding to the government's "Do Your Christmas Shopping Early" appeal, just as they have to the Liberty Loan, Red Cross, Food Conservation, War Work and other campaigns, Mr. and Mrs. Jacksonville and most of the little Jacksonvilleans have checked off a big percentage of their holiday shopping list.

Apparently there are going to be a few of the last-minute shoppers disappointed when they try to do their gift-buying on Christmas eve, but the big bulk of Jacksonville people and residents of this section, so the merchants say, will have their buying done long before Santa Claus gets his big red touring car limbered up for his long joy-ride.

For years the stores have urged the people to do their Christmas buying weeks before Christmas, but the great majority have as often disregarded the appeal, claiming that the best holiday goods are not displayed until a few days before Christmas and that late shoppers had the advantage of getting better prices and perhaps better articles. This year the stores have put all their holiday goods on display exceptionally early, and naturally the early comers will have the choice of the stocks.

Owing to the government's regulations curtailing extra clerk hire to handle the usual holiday rush, stores will be unable to increase their forces as they have been doing in past years. This year it will be pretty near a case of go now when you can be served or go without, for the last few days before Christmas will find the regular clerks overloaded, and if there is a big rush it is easy to see that many cannot be waited upon.

The consensus of opinion of the merchants of Jacksonville is that there will be a heavy Christmas trade, and they have prepared for it with splendid gift stocks of a wide range and variety. It is going to be a sane Christmas to, in that people will buy more heavily of useful articles.

MAKES APPEAL FOR FATHERLESS FRENCH CHILDREN

Editor Journal: Did you ever think of those poor half-starved fatherless and homeless children in France? Today they are suffering for food and clothes and care. There are over two hundred thousand of these unfortunate little ones. Surely if the people of America really understood the situation over there they would hasten to lend every possible assistance. I have just adopted one of these little ones, and I have no doubt it looks to me as a Godsend. I remember that in my own childhood I was left almost alone. I was only thirteen years old when my father was murdered by the Rebel guerrillas in 1861, this awful act being committed before my very eyes. The other children, three boys and three girls, depended upon mother and myself for support. I was small for my age and the hardships I endured until the war closed will never leave my memory. I have lain out many and many a night in some dark hollow holding the bride of our horses to keep them from the Rebels, the weird cry of screech owls making the night seem hideous.

I went a distance of thirty miles to see my brothers in the army. They could not come home to see us for the rebels were too close to hand. I stayed one night with them and the next day went to Columbia. While I was there a man came up and handed me sixty cents and told me to get some candy. I bought five cents' worth of candy and had fifty cents left, and you can imagine how proud I was. Now if I could be with those poor little starved children in France I would surely make some of them happy for once in their lives.

I appeal to the people of Morgan county to get busy for humanity's sake and do something for these little ones. Call Mrs. W. T. Scott, Bell phone, and she will give you all the information that you need. It will only cost you $37 to provide for one of these children for a whole year. Don't put it off, do it now! S. T. Zachary.

LIEUT. SWAIN FLIES AERIAL AMBULANCE

Made First Flight in California With a Red Cross Nurse as Passenger.

The Sacramento (Cal.) Bee of recent date gives an account of the first air journey made in California with an airplane ambulance conveying a Red Cross nurse as passenger. The airplane was piloted by Lieut. J. C. Swain of Sinclair neighborhood. The soldier is now a first lieutenant and is commander of an aerial squadron of 150 men. He has made an excellent record in aviation work and his many Morgan county friends will be interested in the news item from the California paper.

For the first time in California, an airplane ambulance this afternoon made a flight with a woman Red Cross nurse aboard as a passenger.

Piloted by Lieutenant John D. Swain, the new aerial ambulance, painted nearly white and bearing the insignia of the Medical Corps and big Red Crosses both on the bottom and top of the wings where the air service insignia ordinarily are painted, left Mather Field at five minutes after 2 o'clock this afternoon.

After flying over the Country Club grounds, the machine landed for inspection. Later in the afternoon the ambulance will return to the hangar.

Miss Laurie Thornsbrough, the United States army nurse who is now attached to the field hospital was the passenger.

The ambulance has accommodations for one injured person, who is strapped in with head resting toward the propeller. The airplane was built in the machine shop at the aviation field here.

MORGAN COUNTY MONUMENT ASSOCIATION.

The Morgan county monument association met in the Ayers National bank building at two yesterday with a good attendance. Major McDougall, chairman, asked instructions regarding printing of the names of soldiers to be placed on the monument and he was instructed to have them appear in the two city daily papers.

The chair reported that he had recently visited Chicago in company with Captain Swales and had seen the contractor for the bronze work on monument and had arranged with him to have additional names that may be secured within a reasonable time after the publication of the list appear on the monument if they may not be in alphabetical order as the list is now in the hands of the bronze contractor who is preparing the tablets to contain the list on the monument.

Bill of Miss Annie Loar for copying the list of names was approved by the association.

A letter from Messrs. Morrison, Crannelle & Walker, the contractors, to Charles S. Magill of the county board, was read. They called attention to the terms of the contract authorizing payment of $7,000, on completion of the foundation. They had been unavoidably hindered in this work by government order and they needed the money as so much work had been done in the granite and other departments of the work. The foundation will cost a trifle less than $2,000 and they asked for $5,000. The money to pass thru the hands of the American Security company, the bondsmen of the contractors.

It was distinctly expressed that all action on bills was only advisory as the county board is the only body that can pay them and this request of the contractors was approved and the board asked to pay the money if the state's attorney is satisfied it can be done safely in accordance with the contract.

The chair said he and Captain Swales had visited the studio of Mr. Crunnella, the artist of the monument, and were pleased with the progress made. The gentleman was determined to make this work something which would be a source of pride all his life and was even taking more pains with it than with an order for which he is to get $25,000. The models would be passed on by competent judges and every precaution taken to secure something that will ever be a source of satisfaction to the veterans, their families and the people of the county.

INFLUENZA AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Eighteen Cases of Mild Form in Infirmary—Four Discharged Last Night—Patients Receiving Best of Care.

Influenza has been prevalent in a mild form at Illinois Woman's college for the past few days.

Vice President Nyman stated to a Journal reporter Saturday evening that eighteen cases were in the infirmary, none of them serious. Four were discharged Saturday evening leaving only fourteen cases.

Every precaution has been taken to prevent a spread of the disease. Two nurses are on duty and the patients are receiving the best of medical attention and nursing.

All of the cases developed after the peace celebration. It is the opinion of those in charge that probably the students getting up in the early morning hours and becoming chilled caused the outbreak.

The authorities believe that the malady has been checked and so far there has been no interruption in the school schedule. The school went into voluntary quarantine and every precaution has been taken since to protect the students.

TO AVOID AND RELIEVE INFLUENZA

By Dr. FRANKLIN DUANE
Many people have been frightened by what they have read or heard of influenza. The more you fear the disease, the surer you are to get it. Go right about your business and forget it. As the disease is spread principally by contact thru sneezing, coughing or spitting, many health authorities have advised that everyone wear a gauze, which is daily washed and saturated with a one to five hundred solution of zinc sulphate in water, and then dried before wearing over the nose and mouth. You should avoid crowds, common drinking cups and public towels. Keep your strength up by taking lots of exercise in the open air and plenty of nourishing food.

If you have any of such symptoms as chilliness, nasal obstructions, flushed face, headache, feverishness, restlessness, weakness or irritating cough, give up work at once and go to bed. This will save your strength to help overcome the disease. Put your feet in hot water for fifteen minutes. Thoroughly loosen the bowels with some such mild and non-irritating physic as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Drink principally of hot lemonade and then cover up with plenty of clothes in bed so as to get a good sweat. When sweating is free and the fever reduced take a dose of two Anuric Tablets every four hours, followed by drinking at least a glass or two of hot water. Anuric Tablets help quickly to relieve the soreness of the muscles and bones from which most patients complain and help the kidneys flush out the poisons.

To relieve nasal obstructions and excessive discharge from the nose, probably nothing is better than such a mild, soothing, antiseptic wash as Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It will give great relief. Employed as made up for use in the nose, and as hot steam, borne, it quickly relieves soreness and dryness in the throat.

Influenza weakens the patient's resistance to disease, so that there is danger of bronchitis and pneumonia developing. To combat this tendency and fortify the patient's strength insist he keep in bed at least two days. Probably nothing will at this stage hasten the recovery and strengthen the patient more than an iron tonic tablet called "Ironic" or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has been used by thousands in the past two generations. FOOD CONSERVATION WEEK IS PLANNED

Administration Will Seek to Teach that Feeding World is Big Task.

To bring before the American people in a forcible manner the need for saving food and sharing it with the Allies and liberated nations, the United States Food Administration has named December 1-7 as "Conservation Week." Conservation is vital to the relief of stricken Europe. The harvest season has come and gone and whatever food is exported must come from our supplies and from our savings says the Food Administration. Certain foods such as meats, fats and dairy products, it is true, are produced throughout the year but even these depend largely on feeds and fodder, supplies of which are limited and cannot be replenished until another harvest.

Greater Exports Promised.

The original pledge made by the Food Administration in behalf of the people of the United States was 17 1/2 million tons of food to be shipped overseas by July 1, 1918. This amount of food is 50 per cent greater than France and other areas liberated last year. With Belgium and millions in south central Europe clamoring for food, the United States is now undertaking to increase its exports from 17 1/2 to 20 million tons. The Mediterranean Sea routes are now sufficiently safe for sending wheat from India and Australia, hence our exports will consist largely of fats, meats and feed. Feed of essential for milk production, of which the stricken nations are in critical need.

Message From Hoover.

Conservation week as planned, will include a message from Mr. Hoover to the people thru churches, fraternal bodies, clubs, schools, postmen, window displays and the press. An effort will be made to warn of the serious results abroad if we fail to heed the requests for continued conservation. Food, we are reminded, is the only effective weapon with which to combat the famine still threatening hungry millions. And never has there been so great an opportunity for women and children as well as men to show their true spirit of democracy in sending relief by daily acts of food saving.

Conservation week is intended also to impress upon every one that the stopping of hostilities or even the ultimate signing of peace terms produces no extra food and that human lives will continue to be sacrificed unless food is saved in this country and properly distributed among those who have pitifully little or none.

A GOOD TRADE.

Yesterday especially in the afternoon trade was quite brisk and arrivals in the city were numerous. A Journal reporter interviewed merchants in almost every line and all gave a good report. Many houses had almost more than they could manage at times. It is now safe and all right to visit the city and attend to business.

THE SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE

This year, because of the unusual amount of sickness, more calls than ever have been made upon the Social Service League for clothing and food. Therefore we are depending on the Thanksgiving donations not only to make some old people and children happy at this time of year but to fill an actual need. Let us remind you to send something to the Y. M. C. A. on Monday and Tuesday. There will be a committee there to receive your donations. Clothing can be used as well as fruit, vegetables and canned goods for the baskets.

London, Oct. — More letters from home to American troops abroad are urged by Mrs. Margaret Waller, Kansas City, an American Red Cross official visitor to London hospitals.

"I don't know why it is that the boys see her getting her regular 'It isn't as if other people were deprived of mail as well. I have asked the nurses and most of them get an average of two letters a week from their families in America. But even some of the boys who have been in hospital seven or eight weeks have not heard a word from their people."

"If mothers and sisters only know what home letters mean over here! Why, it gets to such a pass that the nurses read aloud their own letters and share them with the boys, so as not to seem selfish. One of the nurses told me she almost hated to have the boys see her getting her regular weekly mail. It made them so envious."

ALL CHILDREN LOVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give It When Feverish, Cross, Bilious, for Bad Breath or Sour Stomach.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul, constipated food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs", which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

Lazzari Conducts Tone Test Before Audience of Five Grand Opera Stars

Of all the searching tests to which the New Edison has been subjected this was the most drastic.

Caroline Lazzari of the Chicago Opera Company possesses a contralto voice of truly wonderful quality. Remarkably flexible, it is surcharged with what is technically known as color. A colorful voice is one which has warmth and feeling—that emotional quality which can genuinely move an audience. To record a voice of this type so that no subtle shade of tone color shall be lost is the most difficult problem which confronts a phonograph.

The drawing reproduced at the left is made from an actual photograph of Lazzari singing in direct comparison with her own voice on the New Edison. In the room at the time were five other great Edison stars: Matzenauer,

De Treville, Ciccolini, Chalmers and Scott. One after another Lazzari sang the same arias she had recorded; sang them in unison with the instrument, ceasing occasionally to see if her listeners could detect when it was she they heard and when

And of this group of five artists, gifted by nature with the most sensitive tone perceptions, not one could distinguish artist from instrument. There is but one instrument capable of sustaining the searching test of direct comparison with living singers.

MAVERICKS

We didn't intend to do it but J. K. was too busy.

We put in our name for one of those Thanksgiving dinners.

Trouble brews along the Mexican border, says an exchange headline. "This indicates that the government must curtail other brewers aside from those engaged in the manufacture of beer."

Lots of people are wondering where Col. House got that "special representative of the United States government" stuff.

Since the outbreak of the Spanish influenza many people suspect that Spain is an ally of the Central powers.

President Wilson and Secretary McAdoo seem to have formed a mutual admiration society.

We learn that Bill Hohenzollern has influenza. It is surprising to learn that any self-respecting influenza germ would associate with anybody as bad as the former kaiser.

Poet John Keams says there are ninety words in the English language that will rhyme with "Flu."

John and Bill have got the Flu and likewise Jane and Maude and Sue.

This puts us in an awful stew. For it will soon get me and you.

The sun makes diamonds of the dew. That show the old red, white and blue. But, gosh, just think if you but knew.

Most anything will rhyme with "Flu."

Henry Ford is to publish a newspaper. We are wondering whether he will let any Ford jokes get by as free advertising.

Russia wants to sit in at the peace table but before she does she will be compelled to buy a large stack of peace checks and to eliminate Lenin and Trotsky who have been playing the principal hands for Russia recently.

Perhaps it would have been better if Mr. McAdoo had resigned before he was made director general of railroads.

Now that the war is over the citizen who didn't believe in contributing to any kind of war fund or buying Liberty Bonds should be picked up and sent over to Germany to live the remainder of his days. That in our opinion is even too good for such a person.

The influenza epidemic has given numerous citizens an excuse for drinking a lot of bad whiskey.

Many young men have been able to use the shortage in sugar as an excuse for not taking their best girls a box of candy.

It's unfortunate Theodore Roosevelt couldn't have met Bill Camp early in life. He might have really amounted to something if he could have gotten Bill's opinions at the beginning of his career.

Senator Sherman evidently means to have the last word.

If President Wilson is going to sit in at the peace table we would suggest that he never get in a pot unless he has four aces. He will find some mighty clever players sitting in the game and the stakes are the greatest in the history of the world.

While the actual war is over there will be lots of battles fought about the stoves in the country stores for the next quarter of a century.

The "Joy of Service" stuff sounds fine, but, Oh, you pay envelope!

In spite of the fact that he wasn't able to move fast enough to get out of the way of a Jacksonville street car, Judge Samuel managed to roll up a majority of several hundred.

As a predictor, Senator Lewis' campaign manager is in the same class with Von Hindenberg.

Names Is Names. Dr. Gabriel is practicing over in Pike county.

The Germ seems to be entirely extracted from Germany.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving remembrance of my dear husband
William Henderson
Not gone from memory.
Not gone from love.
But gone to a Fatherly home above.

And while you rest in peaceful sleep,
Your memory we shall always keep.
The depth of our sorrow we cannot tell,
At the loss of our dear husband we loved so well.

Day by day we sadly miss you.
They may think the wound is healed.
But they little know the grief.
That within our hearts concealed.

You shall never be forgotten.
Never from our memory fade.
Our loving hearts will always linger
Around the grave where you are laid.

Sad and painful was our parting.
But we hope we'll meet some day.
God sent His blessed angels to call him home.
He's sleeping there so peacefully waiting for me.

Mrs. William A. Henderson.

VAUGHAN WILLETTTS KILLED IN ACTION

John F. Willets of Alexander has received the following sad communication regarding his son Vaughan. The young man entered the service Sept. 1917; went across in May last and to the front in July. Mr. Willets wired Washington regarding the matter and was informed that no official notice of the young man's death had been received but this from the captain of the battery would be authentic.

At the Front.
12th, October, 1918.
Dear Mr. Willets:-

It is with a very heavy heart and deep reluctance that I write this letter. You have no doubt already been notified that your son Vaughan fell while attending his gun under shell fire on Oct. 3. His place cannot be filled easily and his example of courage under fire is an inspiration to those who remain. Battery "F" unites with me in this letter of condolence and sympathy.

I have sent Vaughan's personal effects to the Personal Effects Department and they will reach by due course. I have seen to it personally that burial was suitable and the war Department will probably soon notify you of the place. If at any time you should want more information about the place, write me at Iowa City, Iowa, and I will get it.

Yours very sincerely,
Charles W. Gallaher,
Capt. 15th P. A.
